

Hahn Pushes Sidewalks For Schools

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn announced today he was pushing the improvement of 223rd Street between Normandie and Alameda.

One portion of the project, between Normandie and Figueroa, should be ready for construction within 90 days, Hahn said.

The remainder of the job will be timed to coordinate with storm drain construction.

Hahn said he was disturbed by the safety hazard posed by lack of sidewalks on 223rd Street, especially since there are five schools in the immediate area.

He said before school starts in September, temporary walkways will be provided along 223rd Street in the area of the schools for the benefit of students.

The schools involved are Carson High School, 22328 South Main; Carodale Elementary School, 22424 Carodale Avenue; 223rd Street School, 1123 West 223rd Street; Stephen M. White Junior High School, 22102 South Figueroa; and Dolores Street School, 22526 Dolores Street.

SPECIAL COMMENDATION was presented to Ray Deurloo, left, at the recent El Camino College awards banquet. Retired following a long vocational career, Deurloo has studied photography at El Camino for several years, contributing extensively to campus photographic needs and winning national, state and regional distinctions for his work. Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, college president, makes presentation of a special trophy for distinctive service.
